

Don't be Sorrowful, Darling.

BEAUTIFUL SONG AND CHORUS.
BY GEO. B. LOOMIS.

Published by S. BRAINARD & SONS, Cleveland.

THERE'S NO MORE NIGHT THAN DAY.

By GEO. B. LOOMIS.

1. O, do n't be sor-row-ful now, darling! O, do n't be sor-row-ful, pray! For
 2. The way is stormy and drear, darling! The wild waves heavi-ly run; But tak - ing the year all round, my dear, There's no more night than day, There's tak - ing the sea - sons through, my dear, There's no more cloud than sun, There's no more night than day, my dear, There's no more night than day, For no more cloud than sun, my dear, There's no more cloud than sun, But tak - ing the year all round, my dear, There's no more night than day!

tak - ing the sea - sons through, my dear, There's no more cloud than sun!

CHORUS.

SOPRANO.
Then don't be sor - row - ful now, dar - ling, Don't be sor - row - ful, pray! Be-ALTO.
Don't be sor - row - ful!
TENOR.
Don't be sor - row - ful! Do not sor - row! Beyond the drear win - ter of life, good wife, There blooms a change - less May!
BASS.

yond the drear win - ter of life, good wife, There blooms a change - less May!

III.

December is chilly and bleak, darling!
 Its sky is heavy and gray;
 But taking the year all round, my dear,
 You'll always find the May.

IV.

Our day will soon be all o'er, darling!
 Our sun will soon be set;
 But it will not hasten the dark, my dear,
 There's the gold and crimson yet.

V.

Our morn is many years past, darling!
 Our summer is faded away;
 But God is the God of night, my dear—
 Of winter and of the May.

VI.

Of night as well as the day, darling!
 Though the night of death is so grim;
 The pathway that leads to life, good wife,
 Is the gate that leads to him.

Brainard's Musical World.

AN ILLUSTRATED MONTHLY MAGAZINE.

Each Number contains Twenty Pages of Choice New Music and Interesting Reading. Terms, only One Dollar per annum. Specimen Copies, containing a large amount of beautiful Music, sent to any address on receipt of ten cents. We call attention to the following list of valuable and attractive Premiums which we offer for Clubs.

1869. NEW PREMIUM LIST 1870.

FOR SUBSCRIBERS TO

Brainard's Musical World.

The Wilson Shuttle Sewing Machine.

Price, Forty Dollars.

We will give the Wilson Shuttle-Stitch Sewing Machine, worth $40 each, as a premium for forty new subscribers to the Musical World.

The Wilson Shuttle is a double thread, first-class family machine in every particular, and it is furnished at from fifteen to twenty dollars less than those of the old established companies. It is quite new and substantially made and finished, is simply constructed, and easy to operate, and has accommodations for doing all kinds of work, we believe, that are performed by any other machine in the market. Such brief statement of facts in regard to what this machine is, it is well known that the old companies have been making enormous profits in the manufacture of their machines. The Wilson Machine Company propose to manufacture only a first class article, and sell it at a price which affords a reasonable profit, and at the same time brings it within the reach of the poor as well as of the rich.

And in view of our extraordinary facilities for introducing their machine, by instructing the public mind, and in view of the one here, there all over the United States, and thus, perhaps, leading to the establishment of agencies in many localities where it has not yet been introduced, the Company has agreed to furnish our premiums at ten a price, as will make it profitable for us to offer the liberal terms above stated. Here, then, is an opportunity for you, or some friend of yours, to obtain a very useful and valuable article, and to say, from four to five day's work, which would otherwise cost you forty dollars each.

Mason & Hamlin Organs.

Until further notice we will give every person sending us fifty six subscribers at $1.00 each, and $200 cash, a style A. Mason & Hamlin Metropolitan Organ. Cash price $100.

For twenty subscribers at $1.00 each, and $50 cash, a style U. Mason & Hamlin Metropolitan Organ. Cash price $25.00.

For ten subscribers at $1.00 each, and $25 cash, a style E. Mason & Hamlin Metropolitan Organ. Cash price $17.50.

Ladies' Work Boxes.

For five subscribers at $1.00 each, we will give a "Common Sense" work box, furnished complete with thread, needles, scissors, sewing bird, &c. &c. A beautiful and useful article which we hope to send to each one of our lady readers.

Writing Desks.

To every person sending us five subscribers at one dollar each, or ten subscribers at one dollar each, we will give a "Common Sense" Writing Desk, a beautiful and useful little article which every one of our lady readers should secure.

BEETHOVEN'S SONATAS.

For twenty subscribers, at $1 each, we will give an elegant edition of Beethoven's Sonatas in five Turkey Morocco binding, with the name of the person receiving it on the side, if desired.

THE MUSICAL WORLD FREE.

To any person sending us four subscribers, we will send as premium the Musical World for one year.
